EVENT OVERVIEW

In 2007, a group of motorcycle enthusiasts took to the road, traveling 465 miles from Peoria, Illinois to Memphis to raise $90,000 for St. Jude. In 2019, the St. Jude Motorcycle Ride roared onto the St. Jude campus and raised $1,007,150. Since its inception, St. Jude Rides has raised over $7.6 million.

Peoria is home to St. Jude's first affiliate clinic, which opened in 1972, and the community is a great supporter of St. Jude.

Founded by Peoria Sheriff Mike McCoy and Brad Wiebler, a typical St. Jude Rides brings 250 motorcyclists with 100 passengers on the journey from Peoria to Memphis. Satellite rides from seven cities brought the total number of riders and passengers to 350.
